How much could you save?

Rishi is informative and a great communicator. Following his assessment we have made a saving and signed up directly with the company he chose. His advice has been informative, helpful and well communicated. I would have no hesitation in recommending having a meeting with him, you have nothing to lose.

Fiona Seath, Store Manager, Back in Action

I'm delighted that we were able to obtain a new electricity supply deal and we have saved a significant amount of money which will really help us at this current time, a really good initiative by the BID.

High Street Retailer, Bristol

Rishi and the PSP team were really quick and efficient in obtaining quotes for us, we are now looking at our other sites outside of the BID area, to see what savings can be made. Thank you to the BID team for the pushing this out.

Bar Owner, Bristol

We were not sure if we would save anything and were concerned about another company trying to sell us something, the reality was much different, we have a really competitive quote, and the service was non pressurised and simple to understand.
